THE DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Editor.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1865.

THE NATIONAL UNION TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,

Jonathan Worth, Esq.

OF RANDOLPH.

THE PEOPLE must be trusted with their Government, and if trusted, my opinion is that they will act in good faith, and restore their former constitutional relations with all the States composing the Union.—Andrew Johnson's Letter to Gov. Sharkey, of Mississippi.

THE NATIONAL UNION PARTY.

We acknowledge His Excellency, ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, to be the head and leader of the great National Union party. His reconstruction policy is at present the basis of that party, and we stand firmly upon it. This is the only party we acknowledge in this State.

We care not what may be the argument used to the contrary, we maintain that every man in North Carolina who casts a vote in opposition to the clearly known wishes of the Government, wilfully injures his State, and brings misery and suffering upon the helpless ones who should receive his protection and support.—Newbern Times.

The Holden presses of the State stultify themselves and must certainly think their readers totally ignorant or frightened from their propriety, by such demagogical remarks as the above. It is their daily cry: "elect Gov. Holden and go in, or elect Mr. Worth and stay out." Do they suppose the people of the State of North Carolina are such arrant blockheads as to believe such nonsense? The Times talks of the "clearly known wishes of the Government." Has the President expressed any wish whatever in regard to the Governor's election in the State? Yes. Has he said a word about preferring Gov. Holden for that office? No. We have it almost from his own lips, that the government does not in any way interfere in the election. It wants the people of N. Carolina to make their own selection. The Convention having done its whole work towards preparing the State for reconstruction, the President leaves it to the people to sanction what they have done, and to choose their own officials to start anew.

We challenge the whole Holden press of the State to show a word or act of President Johnson, by which he indicates a preference for any man for Civil Governor! And suppose he did express a preference, would that be a compulsory reason why we should select the man of his choice? Certainly not.

President Johnson, thank Heaven, does not hold us as slaves but as freemen. He is willing to trust the people, but the narrow-minded "strictest sect" men are not willing to trust them. People of North Carolina, let us arise and shake off the dust of strait sect ism.

Bogus Letters---Gov. Graham.

We counselled the people only a few days ago to be on the alert against bogus despatches from unprincipled men, purporting to be from Washington, asserting that Gov. Holden was the choice of President Johnson.

The following dispatch from Gov. Graham received early yesterday morning, shows clearly that our admonition was not unfounded. We have written no letter to Gov. Graham nor to any one else, urging him as a candidate for Governor, nor have we authorized any one to write one for us. The letter of which he speaks, is bogus, and we hope he will preserve it for our inspection. The dispatch is as follows:

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Nov. 1st, 1865.

To WM. E. PELL:

Your letter meets me here on my return home. I must decline to be a candidate for the office of Governor. In Jonathan Worth there is a candidate eminently fitted for the situation, whose election will give quiet at home and satisfaction abroad.

[Signed,] W. A. GRAHAM.

Immediately on the receipt of the above telegram, we telegraphed back to Governor Graham thus:

RALEIGH, Nov. 1st, 1865.

GOV. GRAHAM:

The letter you have received is bogus. I have written no such letter. W. E. PELL.

The object of such a bogus operation we cannot divine, unless it was a plot of Mr. Worth's enemies, to divide the Worth vote between himself and Gov. Graham. We have but one candidate for Governor, that is Jonathan Worth, and we have expressed no desire for any other.

[Mr. Worth's Platform.

The friends of Mr. Worth having put that gentleman forward as opposed to repudiation, will find themselves in a strange fix in view of the dispatch of the secretary of state to the governor of Georgia.—Wil. Herald.

Will the Herald do the justice to Mr. Worth to copy his reply to the charge, that he was in favor of disturbing the action of the Convention on the State war debt? The Standard so far as we know has not noticed Mr. Worth's positive denial, that his friends are plotting to disturb the action of the Convention, or that he knows any thing of it.

Plenty of Bread.

At the auction sales at the Commissary Depot on Tuesday, by Capt. Clemons, we learn 200,000 pounds of hard bread were bid off by Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker, Dr. Miller and Col. Foster. Hard tack is therefore abundant at low prices.

Bogus Dispatches.

The Court Journal totally misrepresents the design of our warning against bogus dispatches. Much as we disapprove of Gov. Holden's political course and how much soever we think he has been unfortunate in carrying out President Johnson's policy in the State, we have never allowed ourself for a moment, to attribute to him the disposition to do any thing which would be esteemed disreputable among gentlemen, to secure his election. The captious and fidgetty sensitiveness of the Court Journal, in attempting to screen Gov. Holden from imputations never dreamed of by his political opponents, is doing him more harm than a little.

That there are men in his support, who will stoop to any thing to accomplish a purpose, we have no doubt; but we believe that neither Gov. Holden nor the authorities at Washington would countenance any course which would be disreputable.

The Court Journal insinuates that we are secretly opposed to President Johnston's administration, and that those who co-operate with us are only waiting the chances to spring opposition to it. This is of a piece with the thousand and one false statements which the Standard and its corps of editors, have hatched up in the last few weeks. We are pledged to the reconstruction policy of President Johnson. The principles which he announces as his are our principles, and so long as he maintains them we sustain him. We are pledged to support no one blindly. But so far as we can now see, we expect to sustain President Johnson for the next Presidency, if he does not change his policy or principles. What will the Standard do? Ah! there's the rub? Can any body tell? We should not be surprised if in the next Presidential election, the Standard supports the Northern radical candidate. That is the tendency of the "strait sect" party. It is so in Tennessee.

The 6th District.

The Salisbury Banner urges the claims of Dr. Sloan of Gaston in preference to those of Dr. Ramsay of Rowan for Congress, upon the ground that Dr. Sloan can take the oath and Dr. Ramsay cannot. This of itself can be no recommendation to an honest, intelligent people, unless the candidate can truly represent them. That District warmly endorsed the war and supported Gov. Vance's administration. Dr. Sloan also supported Gov. Vance in the first election, but it is understood, deserted him in the second. Dr. Ramsay acted more consistently and sustained Gov. Vance, ardently desiring peace on the best terms.

We think it therefore clear, that both of the gentlemen stand upon the same platform as to the oath. Neither of them we judge can take it, and we know Dr. Sloan is too high-toned a gentleman to attempt to take it, if he cannot do so conscientiously. We are of opinion that Dr. Ramsay can more fully represent the true sentiments of the District better than Dr. Sloan. We should certainly hesitate to vote for any man who could take that oath.

The War Debt.

The Sentinel is upon principle opposed to repudiation of any kind, but it has distinctly stated several times when discussing the question of the State debt, that if the government demanded the repudiation of the war debt, as our conqueror it had a right to do it, and that settled the question. We are of the same opinion now. The charge or intimation that we or Mr. Worth or his friends could be made the participators in a plot, alien and infidel to the government, is false and base.

Lenoir County.

A friend has handed us the following extract from a letter received from one of the Worth candidates in Lenoir. He says:

"We spoke at Bear Creek or Mosely Hall on yesterday, (29th) and found the people almost unanimous for our ticket and Worth. In Dunn's reply to Herring he told the people that he should vote for Holden, but he found the tide so much against him, that he changed before he left the ground and declared in favor of Worth."

ROWAN.—We observe that F. E. Shober Esq., of Rowan is spoken of for the Senate from Rowan and Davie. A better selection could hardly be made. Dr. N. F. Lucky and Luke Blackmer Esq., are spoken of for the Commons in Rowan. They are worthy men and we hope all right.

As We Expected.

We have said over and over again that the threats of executive displeasure in the event of Mr. Holden's not being elected Governor of North Carolina, were all bosh---mere electioneering humbug. We reasoned simply from the fitness of things. We had too much respect for President Johnson's prudence, as well as for his sense of justice, to suppose that he would not allow himself to be so influenced.

From these considerations we derive the moral assurance which we give our readers. We may now add that, in addition to all this, we have the positive assurance that our views were correct. So far as the interests of the State are concerned, President Johnson's position will not be influenced or changed, whether Mr. Holden be elected, or Mr. Worth be elected. We have reason to believe that the evidences upon which this assurance is based will be shortly given to the world. As President of the United States, Mr. Johnson is indifferent to the issue of the gubernatorial contest in this State.

Thus one piece of humbug is put to shame. Will it lie quiet?

Straws show which way the wind blows. Mr. Lewis Hanes in the Greensboro' District, and Dr. Ramsay in the Salisbury District have come out as Worth men. This shows what they regard as the popular side, they themselves being candidates in their respective districts.—Wilmington Journal.

For the Sentinel.

About "Staying Out" &c.

The young gentlemen who ostensibly conduct the Court Journal have been at last either shamed, or scolded out of their impudent assertions that unless His Excellency Gov. Holden, was elected by the people, we should all have to "stay out" of the Union. Have they heard from Washington City; as others have, that this thing was run into the ground, and would not do? Has the President, or any one by his authority, intimated to them, or to their candidate, that this unwarranted and shameless use of his name would be no longer tolerated? Has any indignation been expressed in high quarters purporting that there had been about enough of that? Outsiders think so. This shivering, icy "STAY OUT" fulmination is lately excluded from the minatory out pourings of that Journal. But we now have something still more awful, in store. It is now the abolitionists whom we have to dread. The Standard says that if we had only the President to look to in our restoration he might be indulgent and forgiving, however ungrateful we were to show ourselves—but the Congress! What will the Congress do? The radical party is understood to be largely in the majority in both branches. They do not know Mr. Worth, except as the candidate of those elements in this State that are hostile to the government of the United States—that is subdued hostility—they will consider his election as the triumph of such a feeling, and their orators will use it in Congress and before the Northern people to thwart the reconstruction policy of the President." If the President were "indifferent in this matter there is another consideration which is all important to our people. If we have only &c.

These young gentlemen are great at staring up roaring lions in the path and making them curl up their tails, and shake their lordly heads, at our poor unsophisticated people.

Why, do not these hopeful youths know that there is now nothing in the way, but the difficulty of taking the test oath, by the members of Congress, who may be elected from the Southern States? Governor Worth—we beg the Provisional Governor's pardon—Jonathan Worth, will not go to Congress at all. His place of abode will be in Raleigh—and his office will be only Governor of North Carolina. He will not have to take that oath. His present Excellency has not, we hope, taken it; if he has may the Lord have mercy on his soul. This new ruse will scarcely succeed.

But if we are obliged to kneel down to this abolition, "radical" party, and do all that they require, admit the ignorant freedmen to the polls now, before they are qualified by proper indoctrination of their duties and rights as citizens, and give testimony in our courts on the same footing as our whites are admitted, then most people in this old State would prefer to "stay out." We have one true friend, in our own distinguished and impulsive son who is commander in chief of the army, and we would infinitely rather trust in him, and his military rule, till we can "get back" on decent terms. We once felt some apprehension at the future probable course of President Johnson. He had been represented as a stern hard man. The Standard of former years had embittered our people against his person. And some body said that he had been purchased for one thousand dollars to "stay in" the old Union. So the Southern mind was poisoned. Now we know him better. We were vilely deceived, as we were in many other things from the same quarter. We now know him to be just. His acts also prove him to be generous. Gen. Ruger also with his regiment, who represents him at our Metropolis, has borne his honors, and performed his disagreeable duties, meekly and courteously. We cannot say with these young gentlemen that this "military power" "is deplorable in the extreme." We are used to it, and say now and forever that we infinitely prefer bearing such gentle "ills" as those arising from the military power of President Johnson and Gen. Ruger, "than fly to those we know not of," but which we shall know to our sorrow. When we bow our humbled heads before Charles Sumner and others of that stamp, and meekly submit to bear all the burdens which such taskmasters may please to impose. Q.

For the Sentinel.

Let It Come Out.

The Standard says that there is "an almost daily epistolary and telegraphic intercourse between the President and Gov. Holden in regard to the progress of events in the State"—also that the Governor is "the only authority with whom he can communicate officially."

Why did not his Excellency publish in his journal the "epistolary or telegraphic" communication in which he expressed his desire that the Provisional Governor should be elected by the people and his determination that if any one else was elected, the State should "stay out?"—Answer: Because such communication has never been made. In a question involving such momentous consequences, an "epistolary or telegraphic" direction of this import would have been spread before the people in the President's own language. The people would then have known what to do.

As the last number of the Standard does not now reiterate the absurdity, many believe that the President has directed, under pain of his displeasure, that the Governor should make the "young gentlemen" stop all that nonsense, and behave better in future or ——, but with this telegrhphic dispatch—let us have it. The people desire to know who has been attempting to fool them. R.

Tribute of Respect.

At a public meeting of the citizens of Greene county, held at the Court House in Snow Hill, on Saturday the 21st, day of Oct. A D. 1865.

On motion, Joseph Dixon, was called to the chair, and D. A. Spivey requested to act as Secretary.

Robert W. Best, Esq., offered the following preamble and resolutions, which on motion of Dan. W. Edwards, were unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, An All Wise Providence has in His wisdom called from our midst our fellow-citizen Edward Patrick; therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of Edward Patrick, the county of Greene has lost one of her most worthy citizens, the poor, one of their best friends, and his bereaved family, a devoted husband and kind father.

Resolved, That we extend to his afflicted family our heart felt sympathies and condolence in this their sad bereavement.

Resolved, That the Secretary be requested to furnish a copy of these foregoing resolutions to the family of the deceased, and to the Daily Standard and Sentinel for publication.

JOSEPH DIXON, Chairman.

D. A. SPIVEY, Secretary.

For the Sentinel.

"There is but one Party."

Standard, Nov. 30, 1865.

It is always pleasant to be in accord with the Court Journal. The Sentinel has long and strenuously contended that there is no disagreement among us as to measures, and it must be particularly rejoiced at its eminent success in at least converting to its faith, the two misguided youths who ostensibly edit that Journal. Every body else know before that our present gubernatorial struggle was only a contest for men, against strait sectism.

Mr. Jefferson once said exultingly, "we are all Federalists—we are all Republicans." With much more truth may it now be said, "we are all Unionists—we are all re constructionists."—There are now no secessionists living in North Carolina, nor in the whole South. Secession is dead as a shotten herring, and has had a decent burial. It can hope for no resurrection. We once indeed had a few wild advocates of that most deplorable heresy, who stirred us up with a vengeance. But it is dangerous to speak of the most eminent one among us just at present. No peaceable gentleman wishes to butt his head against the charge of uttering a "stereotyped lie."

"Oh! breathe not his name—let it rest in the shade
"When cold and unhonored he soon will be laid."

Who once held "to the right of secession as an original, pre-existing, reserved, sovereign right." It is better not to mention him, or we may say something "infamously false." But some body said in 1861, and printed, it too, that he "had always held that the States had a right to secede for cause," and in the following year urged us to execute our right, and F-I-G-H-T it out. It is not quite safe to remember, certainly not to speak or write or spell the name of him who urged us to "fight every where—all the time." Whoever it was, it was not Jonathan Worth. So much may be said without uttering a "stereotyped lie." So much is not "infamously false." It is gospel truth. Jonathan Worth never any where on any occasion, or in presence of any body, urged man, woman or child or nigger to rebellion, revolution, dissolution or secession. Certainly not before May 20, 1861. It is very problematic whether he has done it since that disastrous day. But some body has. It was the same man who so worried the laggards and skulkers, with his long poll. "Drill them until their legs gets limber," quoth he: "Stir them up! Blow the fife! Beat the drum!" All this time Jonathan Worth was whistling Yankee Doodle, and singing Hail Columbia, to the sober sided Union men in Randolph and Guilford. But we are all Union men now. One quite as much so as another, and "more too." It is easy to prove this by Standard logic. For example the Convention unanimously thanked the President and Governor for their efforts to restore the Union.

Therefore that journal concludes that the Convention wants his Excellency elected as Governor again. But if it approves the course of the Governor, does it not with equal unanimity approve that of the President? What then becomes of the "stereotyped" charge of disaffection against the President among members of the Convention? Their vote was unanimous as to both.

Again, there was an unanimous vote to procure a flag. By Standard logic, does not that prove that the star-spangled banner is honored by all?

But there is direct proof in a very late number of that journal, that we are all good Union men, and jogging along home together, in happy brotherhood. Thus saith that journal, "We are opposed to political agitation at this time, and to exciting the people to array themselves into political parties; there should be but one party, indeed there is but one party; and that is the party who are for getting back into the Union, and coming into the enjoyment, at the earliest possible day, of all our civil rights, under a re-organized Union and re-organized State government." Good as wheat! Out at last with the truth! Stick to it, and

"All will be we l—be happy yet."

The Election.

We have conversed with gentlemen, who have been up the line of the Charlotte Railroad and North Carolina road, and who assure us that after a careful observation, they are satisfied that Mr. WORTH will teach Mr. HOLDEN as memorable a lesson as did Gov. VANCE in 1864.

A friend who has thoroughly canvassed this county during the past week, and who ought to know, assures us that he has not met a single HOLDEN man since he left Wilmington. Precious few here.—Wilmington Journal.

Hon. Kenneth Rayner.

MR. EDITOR:—Is there any monument to John Faust, who first started a printing establishment? If not, the whole of Christendom, Mahometdom and Pagandom should unite in raising one. Who can calculate the benefits that have resulted from the invaluable discovery of printing? Let the ancients boast of their Coliseums, their Pantheons and their mausoleums—their Corinthian, Ionian and Doric columns! The invention of an humble mechanic of the 15th century exceeds them all, whether considered in a moral, material or intellectual point of view. Suppose the art of printing had flourished during the palmy days of the Roman empire? A single copy of a monthly, weekly or daily journal published at that period would have better illustrated the private and public manners and customs of the Roman people, than all the histories that have been written. Instead of the fragmentary and mutilated sketches of the learning and wisdom of the ancients that we now have, we might have turned "for doctrine, for reproof, for correction" to the whole with as much ease, as I now turn to a communication of the Hon. Kenneth Rayner addressed to the then Editor of the Standard, and bearing date of Dec. 14th, 1861. The editor, full of the milk of human kindness, as we all know he is, in the course of some editorial remarks made use of the following complimentary language in reference to Mr. Rayner:

"Mr Rayner acted a frank and manly part in relation to the test oath feature, by announcing his opposition to it on reflection, and his willingness to strike it out."

I will let Mr. Rayner speak for himself in reply to the above compliment. I quote from his communication referred to of Dec. 1861.

"From this it might seem that I had changed my opinion in regard to the proposition that every man in the State should take the oath of allegiance to the State and to the Confederate States. This was not my position by any means. I argued at great length, to show that it was eminently right and proper, in principle, that the position of the ordinance providing for taking the oath of allegiance should pass, and that it would be productive of great good, if received with cordiality and unanimity by our people."

There is Mr. Rayner's position on the "test oath," as explained by himself. I will now quote from a communication by the Hon. Gentleman found in the Standard of to-day.

"I find there is some misapprehension in regard to my course in the Convention of 1861, on the "test oath" ordinance, as it was called. It is objected to me by some persons, as I am informed that I was a warm supporter of the "test oath" ordinance. This is not true."

Comment is unnecessary. I do not step forward, Brother Pell—I think I have the right to call you Brother, (unlike these politically intoxicated young gents who preside over the columns of the Standard, and who stagger up to you h-h-how'd-you-do Bro Pell,) I say, I do not step forward, prompted by malicious feelings, to point out the inconsistency in Mr. Rayner's two communications, for I am his personal friend, but I do so in order that he may refresh his memory and correct his commentary upon his own record.

VINDICATOR.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR: The friends of Jonathan Worth, having published the following handbill, will you please give it an insertion in the Sentinel, and oblige MANY VOTERS.

The National Union Ticket!

For Governor: JONATHAN WORTH, of Randolph County.

For Congress: JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., of Orange County.

For the State Senate: NATHAN IVEY.

For the House of Commons: T. JEFF. UTLEY, P. A. DEAN, JOHN J. L. MCCULLERS.

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.

The friends of the Union and of the liberal policy of President Johnson, who are opposed to the policy of the "straitest sect" party, not satisfied with any of the candidates now before the people—all of whom, it is understood, will vote for W. W. Holden for Governor—offer you the above ticket. A vote for Gov. Holden, or for those who vote for him, is a vote for the "straitest sect" party. We cannot go it.

We offer you four gentlemen for the Legislature, all respectable farmers, intelligent business men, reliable and trustworthy. They are identified with your interests; they are not politicians nor seekers of office, and can be trusted. They have not been consulted, nor asked to be candidates. Without their knowledge they are brought before you, relying upon their public spirit to serve you if elected. Let us elect them whether they desire it or not. We have a right to claim their services.

1. They are friends and supports of President Johnson's liberal policy, and opposed to the aims of the "straitest sect."
2. They are in favor of the early establishment of civil law, and the restoration of the State to the Union.
3. They are advocates of a general amnesty.
4. They are in favor of economy in National and State Governments, and opposed to high taxes.
5. They are friends to the soldier, and in favor of relief for the people.
6. They are opposed to negro suffrage and to negro testimony against white people.

MANY VOTERS.

MAIL FACILITIES.—We are glad to learn from Colonel R. H. Cowan, President of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, that he has made arrangements with the Postmaster here for a tri-weekly mail on that road. We hope those interested on the line of the road will have some one at the different stations to receive the mail when the train passes.

We are also informed that Messrs. Beman & Co., have taken a contract for a tri-weekly mail from Warsaw to Fayetteville, to be commenced on Monday next.—Wil. Dispatch.

FOR CONGRESS.

COL. JAMES R. LOVE.

WE are authorized to announce Col. JAMES R. LOVE of Jackson County, as a Conservative—National Union Candidate for a seat in the House of Representives of the United States, in the 7th, Congressional District, composed of the Counties of Ashe, Alleghany, Watauga, Yancy, Mitchell, McDowell, Burke, Caldwell, Rutherford, Cleaveland, Polk, Henderson, Transylvania, Buncombe, Madison, Haywood, Jackson, Macon, Cherokee and Clay.

Oct. 25 1865.

TO THE VOTERS

Of the Fourth Congressional District, composed of the Counties of Orange, Chatham, Granville, Warren, Franklin, Wake, Johnson and Nash:

FELLOW CITIZENS:—I hereby announce myself a candidate to represent you in the next Congress of the United States. The short time between this and the day of election, precludes the possibility of a canvass. Indeed, in the present condition of the country, a heated political campaign should be deprecated by all. The particular measures that will claim the attention of the ensuing Congress, cannot now with certainty be known. Hence, idle speculations and precedent pledges are vain and unnecessary. There is one question however, which seems to be agitating to some extent the minds of the people both North and South, but which properly comes within the purview of the State Legislature. I allude to negro suffrage, to which I am utterly opposed. I am in favor, as no doubt all of us are, of the speedy restoration of civil law in the State.

If I am honored fellow citizens, by your suffrages with a seat in Congress, I can only promise you to guard zealously your best interests—to devote what ability I may possess to the advocacy and preservation of all your rights—and to uphold and maintain, to the full extent of my power, whatever measures will re found to the welfare, freedom and honor of North Carolina. I sincerely and ardently desire that our people may soon be restored to the enjoyment of all their rights both of person and property, and that they may again be blessed with prosperity, liberty and happiness.

Very Respectfully,

Your Obedient Servant,

A. H. ARRINGTON.

One hundred acres of the latter is well drained and in a fine state of cultivation. This Farm is situated on the Raleigh and Lousburg Road, 18 miles from the former and 18 from the latter place. Purchasers seldom meet with such inducements as are here offered. Pine timber can be delivered on the R. & G. R. R 7 miles from the premises. Also the crop of Corn and Fodder, Horses, Mules. Hogs and Cattle, consisting of Beeves, Milch Cows, and Work Oxen. Dump and Ox Carts, Wagons and other Agricultural implements too tedious to mention. Terms made known on the day of sale.

Agent for Maj. A. M. Lewis.

Oct. 25 66-2w.

North Carolina Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

AT A MEETING OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE Company on the 27th of September, an assessment of 15 per cent. was levied on all premium Notes in the office of the Company at the time the losses occurred, to be paid in three installments, viz: six, nine and twelve months from 1st October, 1865.

The amount of premium Notes on hand,	$230,000
" " Allowed Losses,	10,000
" " Unsettled do.	7,500

(There are some losses not yet reported, the amount of which, of course, cannot now be stated.)

The assessment may appear to be disproportionate to the amount of the losses; but the Directors, taking into consideration the changes in property by sale, without transfer of policies, by destruction during the war, &c., &c., do not think that more will be raised by it than will be needed to meet the actual wants of the Company.

There will be, necessarily some delay in the payment of the losses. It is hoped, however, that there will be no complaint on this account; especially, when it is recollected that payment in some cases, was tendered in Confederate currency and refused.

The Company is prepared to take risks as in former times, and on as favorable terms. Address all letters to the Secretary. T. H. SELBY, Pres't.

LOUISBURG

FEMALE COLLEGE.

REV. T. M. JONES, A. M., Pres't and Proprietor.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will begin on the second Wednesday in January, 1866.

Louisburg is a village seldom surpassed for health, intelligence, refinement and morality. It is in Franklin County, nine miles from Franklinton, on the R. and Gaston Railroad. Between these points there is a daily stage line, connecting with trains going North and South.

The College building, located in a beautiful grove, on an elevated site, is large, commodious and well ventilated. It will be thoroughly renovated, and fitted up with neat furniture and fire places in the dormitories. It is our purpose to establish for young ladies a school of the highest grade, affording superior facilities for the acquisition of a thorough and accomplished education.

With the advantages of a good library, a well selected Chemical and Philosophical apparatus, a competent Faculty, and large experience in connection with the Greensboro Female College, we hope, by a faithful discharge of duty, to merit a liberal share of patronage. Boarding pupils will live as members of the President's family. Terms reasonable, and will be made known in due time. Those desiring to send their daughters, will please address me, for the present, at Greensboro', N. C., and circulars will be sent.
